At a Final Hearing in open court on December 5, 2017, the parties appeared representing themselves. Plaintiff rented a residential trailer from the defendant. The trailer was located in a trailer park where the defendant had six mobile homes he was in the process of purchasing from the "park" owner. When the defendant failed to make his payments to the park owner, the park owner evicted the trailer meaning that the plaintiff was evicted despite making payments as agreed to the defendant. It was proved through the Writ of Eviction that the plaintiff was forced to move on July 7th after making his payment the full month of July to the defendant. It is also undisputed that the defendant failed to send the required Notice by certified mail necessary to retain the security deposit. Therefore it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that plaintiff shall recover from defendant $409.70 which includes both the security deposit and the remaining balance of rent paid for July which shall accrue interest at the rate of 5.35% per annum for which let execution issue.
