The Frank & Ollie Mae Watson Trust

THIS DECLARATION OF TRUST, by and between FRANK WATSON, and OLLIE MAE WATSON, the Settlers, and FRANK WATSON, and OLLIE MAE WATSON, the original Trustees. The name of this trust shall be:

The Frank & Ollie Mae Watson Trust

ARTICLE 1. PURPOSE:

The purpose of this Trust is to provide for the management of each Settlor's assets, both presently and during any future period of disability; a preferred alternative to guardianship proceedings; and a simplified means of accomplishing both lifetime and death transfers of those assets.

ARTICLE 2. SETTLORS' POWERS:

A. During Lifetime: The Settlers, or the survivor of them, reserve the right at any time or from time to time to amend or revoke this Trust in whole or in part, by written instrument signed by them and delivered to the Trustee, and to add, substitute or remove any trust property. Upon revocation of this instrument in its entirety, the Trustee shall deliver to the Settlers or as they may direct in the instrument of revocation, their respective shares in the trust property.

B. By Will: The Settlers reserve the right to add property to this Trust by Will.

ARTICLE 3. TRUST PROPERTY:

The Settlers have delivered to the Trustee all their interest in the property transferred by the Assignment To Trustees attached hereto, and all property, if any, previous or subsequent to the date hereof transferred to the Trustees to be held hereunder for the benefit of Settlers. The Trust estate shall for all purposes of this Trust be equally divided into two separate equal shares, each constituting a separate and distinct Trust, hereinafter referred to as "Trust share", or merely "share", for convenience, for each of the Settlers. To the extent that either Settlor's share exceeds his or her contribution to the Trust, the amount of the difference shall constitute a completed gift from the other Settlor at the time and on the date of the initial transfer of such asset into the trust.

The Trustee acknowledges receipt of such property and agrees to hold in trust, manage and distribute the property and property later added to the Trust by the Settlers, or any other person, as provided in this Trust.

ARTICLE 4. DISPOSITIVE PROVISIONS:

A. During Settlers' Lifetimes: During the Settlers' lifetimes and the surviving Settlor's lifetime, the Trustee shall pay to or for the benefit of the Settlers and the surviving Settlor all of the net income, in at least quarter-annual payments, and so much of the principal as each Settlor may from time to time direct by written instrument delivered to the Trustee. In the event of the incapacity of one or both of the Settlers, the Trustee may use the principal and income to provide for Settlor(s) in the event of the incapacity of either or both.

B. Upon The Death Of The Surviving Settlor: Upon the death of the surviving Settlor, or the simultaneous deaths of the Settlers, as specified in C. 3. below, the Trustee shall:

1. In its discretion, pay those claims against the Survivor which could be properly asserted and proven in probate proceedings if decedent's estate had been probated, expenses of last illness, and burial expense, to the extent that these items shall not be paid or the responsibility for their payment be assured by some other person or estate, except that the Trustee, in its discretion, shall not be required to pay and discharge, both as to principal and interest, any valid lien, mortgage, or charge against any real property, including buildings and improvements, but may elect to treat such as a continuing debt.

2. Regardless of anything in this Trust to the contrary, the Trustee shall not pay any debts or expenses or any estate or inheritance taxes, or satisfy any creditor's claims, if any, from funds or property which are exempt, if at all, from federal estate taxes pursuant to Section 2039 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended, received as an annuity payment, qualified retirement plan, or distribution under a trust forming part of a pension, stock bonus, or profit sharing plan meeting the requirements of Section 401 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or under a retirement annuity contract purchased pursuant to a plan described in Section 403 (a), payment or distribution of which is designated to be made to the Trustee of this Trust.

3. The Trustee shall distribute the house and property located at 1075 West Lee Street, Pensacola, Florida, to ANTOINETTE RENEE WATSON, the daughter of the Settlers. If she is not surviving at the time of this distribution, this property shall be added to the remainder of the Trust and distributed as hereinafter provided.

4. The Trustee shall then divide the remainder of the Trust, including its allocable share of accumulated income, into shares for each of the Settlers' children and grandchildren, whether surviving or not, as follows:

ANTOINETTE RENEE WATSON	(Daughter of the Settlers)	20%
FRANK WATSON, JR.	(Son of the Settlers)	20%
VERNON WAYNE WATSON	(Son of the Settlers)	20%
VICTOR LEONARD WATSON	(Son of the Settlers)	20%
FRANK DWAYNE WATSON	(Grandson of the Settlers)	4%
VICTOR TERRELL WATSON	(Grandson of the Settlers)	4%
LAKASSIA D. WATSON	(Granddaughter of the Settlers)	4%
LAKISHA RENEE WATSON	(Granddaughter of the Settlers)	4%
RANESHIA T. LAWRENCE	(Granddaughter of the Settlers)	4%

The Trustee shall then hold, manage and distribute each separate share to or for each beneficiary as follows:

a. Subject to the limitations of age set forth below: The principal and any accumulated income of each share for each named beneficiary shall be distributed to that beneficiary immediately upon being divided by the Trustee into separate shares. If a named beneficiary is deceased at the time of this distribution, the principal and any accumulated income of the share of that deceased beneficiary shall be immediately distributed to that beneficiary's surviving lineal descendants per stirpes. If a named beneficiary is deceased at the time of this distribution and has no surviving lineal descendants, the principal and any accumulated income of the share of such deceased named beneficiary shall be immediately distributed to the other named beneficiaries, per stirpes, in proportion to their respective interests in this Trust.

b. If any beneficiary is under the age of 21 years at the time of distribution of his or her share of the Trust, then his or her share shall be continue to be held by the Trustee IN TRUST for the following purposes:

Until such beneficiary has attained his or her 21st birthday, the Trustee shall use so much of the income and of such beneficiary's share of the principal of the Trust necessary or desirable, in the exercise of the Trustee's discretion, for the education (including post secondary) of the beneficiary by paying, transferring and assigning same in one or more of the following ways:

- (1) directly to the beneficiary such amount as the Trustee may deem advisable as an allowance;
- (2) to the guardian of the person or of the property of the beneficiary for educational purposes;
- (3) to a relative of the beneficiary upon the agreement of such relative to expend such income or principal solely for educational purposes for the benefit of the beneficiary;
- (4) by expending such income or principal directly for the education of the beneficiary.

An invasion of principal may be made even though it results in termination of the Trust. Any income not so used shall be added to the principal of the Trust at the end of each fiscal year of the Trust. The Settlers have been advised of the tax consequences of accumulating income in a trust for the beneficiaries.

At the time a beneficiary attains his or her 21st birthday, or at the time of the death of the Surviving Settlor if such beneficiary has attained such age, or upon the beneficiary's death, whichever occurs first, the Trustee shall terminate the Trust as to such beneficiary's share, and the then remaining principal and undistributed income of his or her share shall be distributed absolutely to him or her or, if he or she is then deceased, to his or her lineal descendants per stirpes or, if none, to the other beneficiaries of this Trust in proportion to their respective shares, and managed in accordance with the provisions of this Trust.

c. Any distribution of income required to be made under his Trust shall be at times fixed by the Trustee but at least as often as quarter-annually.

d. If all the children and grandchildren of the Settlers or otherwise designated beneficiaries of this Trust die prior to the vesting in them of the assets of this trust leaving no one to take under the above provisions, then the Trust shall be dissolved and the assets be distributed (a) one-half to those persons who would be entitled to the distribution of the personal property of FRANK WATSON, if, at that time, he had died intestate as a resident of the state of Florida, and (b) one-half to those persons who would be entitled to the distribution of the personal property of OLLIE MAE WATSON, if, at that time, she had died intestate as a resident of the state of Florida.

e. Any net income not so paid over or applied shall be added to principal at least annually and shall be held, administered, and disposed of as a part thereof.

f. The determination of the Trustee as to the value of any Trust property and the amount of any accumulated or current income shall be binding and conclusive upon all persons who are then or may later become entitled to share in the Trust property.

C. General Provisions:

1. In the event that both Settlers should die simultaneously or under such circumstances that the order of their deaths cannot be determined by proof, then it shall be deemed that OLLIE MAE WATSON survived FRANK WATSON.

2. Unless the context otherwise requires, the term "Trustee" includes the original, successor, independent, and special Trustees and any other Trustee or Trustees then qualified and acting as such. Whenever the context requires, the singular includes the plural, the plural includes the singular, and gender shall be construed as masculine, feminine or neuter.

D. Limitation: Any person who would otherwise be or become a beneficiary of any part of any trust which is established by the Settlers by reason of the provisions anywhere in this Trust, which person shall in anywise try to or succeed in contesting this Trust, the validity thereof, or any provision herein contained with respect to distribution of any share hereof, shall be limited to a total sum of ONE DOLLAR ($1.00) from any sums which at any time comprise this Trust. All remaining sums shall pass in accordance with the Trust as though such person had predeceased the Settlers of this Trust.

F. Tangible Personal Property: Either or both Settlers may leave a written memorandum designating to whom specific items of tangible personal property are to be given. The last dated and signed memorandum made for this purpose by the deceased Settlor that is in existence shall be given effect by the Trustee if presented to the Trustee within 60 days of the death of the Settlor. Thereafter, the Trustee may give effect to such memorandum but shall not be required to do so. The surviving Settlor, during his or her lifetime, shall have the right to the use, possession, and enjoyment of any and all tangible personal property given to others by the deceased Settlor pursuant to this provision. After the death of the surviving Settlor, the tangible personal property not yet distributed pursuant to this provision shall be given to the persons as specified in the written memorandum. A donee of tangible personal property given him or her under this provision shall have no claim or cause of action against either Settlor or their estates for any misuse, abuse, damage, destruction, waste, or loss by a Settlor of tangible personal property given such donee pursuant to this provision.

G. Spendthrift Provision: No income or principal distributable from this Trust or any trust created hereunder shall be subject to anticipation, assignment, mortgage or pledge in any manner by any beneficiary, including the Settlers, and shall not be reached by any legal, equitable or other process, including bankruptcy proceedings, in satisfaction of any debt or liability of a beneficiary prior to receipt by the beneficiary.

ARTICLE 5. TRUSTEE'S POWERS:

The Trustee shall have all of the powers set forth in Chapter 737, Florida Statutes, as in effect on the date hereof, the provisions of which are hereby expressly incorporated herein by reference. The Trustee shall also have the following powers, which are in addition to all common law and statutory powers (which shall not be a limitation on the power and authority granted by the provisions of this Trust), and in addition to all other powers granted to the Trustee by this Trust, which shall continue after the termination of any of the trusts created by this Trust for the purpose of the distribution of all or any portion of the trust property, and which may be exercised at any time by the Trustee without approval from any court:

- A. To purchase or sell at public or private sale, or to exchange, grant options to purchase, lease, pledge, improve, repair, manage, insure, operate, control, and mortgage, in such manner and on such terms as the Trustee in its sole discretion may deem advisable, any property, real or personal, which at any time may constitute a part of the trust property.
- B. To purchase any assets from each Settlor's estate at fair market value in such quantities as the Trustee deems advisable, and to loan all or a portion of the trust property to each Settlor's testamentary estate, upon such terms and in such amount as the Trustee deems advisable, and with or without taking security.
- C. To borrow money for any purpose, including collateralizing trust assets to purchase and sell property and/or securities, with or without security and to pledge securities or other property, without regard for the term of the trust(s).
- D. To execute all deeds, assignments, leases or other instruments necessary or proper for the exercise of any power granted to the Trustee.
- E. To invest or reinvest in and retain as an investment any property which in the opinion of the Trustee is suitable for the purposes of the Trust without being restricted to "legal investments" or limited by the "prudent man rule," although of a kind or an amount which otherwise might not be regarded as a proper trust investment, and specifically, but without limitation, to invest in one or more mutual funds, limited partnerships, and annuity funds; provided, however, that either Settlor may specify in a writing delivered to any Trustee other than a Settlor, the kind, amount and date of any investment of all or part of the Settlor's share of the trust property to be made by the Trustee and the broker-dealer or registered representative through whom the investment shall be made.
- F. To enter into any withdrawal plan with any mutual funds authorizing payment to the Settlers, the survivor of them or to any other beneficiary, of a specified monthly or quarterly amount payable from income dividends, capital gains distributions, and, to the extent necessary, from the proceeds of liquidation of shares of any mutual fund, to enter into any accumulation plan with any mutual fund authorizing reinvestment of income dividends and capital gains distributions and permitting further periodic or other investments in any mutual fund, to deposit shares of any mutual fund with a custodian or other agent, and to keep any or all securities constituting a part or all of the trust property in the name of a custodian or other agent pursuant to any withdrawal plan or accumulation plan. Neither the custodian nor other agent, nor the fund, nor its transfer agent shall be under any duty to inquire beyond the provisions of this subparagraph into the powers or duties of the Trustee, and to that extent the provisions of this subparagraph shall supersede any other provisions of this Trust. Neither the custodian, nor other agent, nor the fund, nor its transfer agent shall be required to see to the application of any payments made pursuant to any withdrawal plan, nor shall they assume the responsibility for the validity of this Declaration of Trust or any of its provisions.

- G. To vote either in person or by general or limited proxy, or to refrain from voting, any corporate stock for any purpose not inconsistent with the trust(s) as will in the sole discretion of the Trustee be most beneficial for the Settlers during their lifetimes, and thereafter for the named beneficiaries.
- H. To deposit any securities constituting a part or all of the trust property with or under the direction of any committee formed to protect the securities and to participate in, consent to or carry out any reorganization, consolidation, merger, liquidation, readjustment of the financial structure, or sale of the assets of any corporation or other organization and to exercise conversion and subscription rights, and hold any property received pursuant to any exchange, deposit, conversion or subscription as part of the trust property.
- I. To keep any or all securities or other property constituting a part or all of the trust property in the name of another person, or of a partnership or corporation, or in the name of the Trustee, or of any one or more of them, without disclosing their fiduciary capacity.
- J. To determine how all receipts from any source and all disbursements for any purpose shall be credited, charged or apportioned between the trust property and the income of the trust property, all without regard to general rules of law, and specifically, but without limitation, to make that determination in regard to stock and cash dividend rights, and all other receipts in respect of the ownership of stock.
- K. To purchase or retain stock which pays dividends in whole or in part, otherwise than in cash.
- L. To pay, prosecute, extend, renew, modify, contest or compromise, upon such terms as the Trustee may determine, and upon such evidence as the Trustee may deem sufficient, any obligation or claim, including taxes, either in favor of or against the trust property, or the income of the trust property.
- M. To employ attorneys, banks, brokers, custodians, investment counsel and other agents, and to delegate to them duties, rights and powers of the Trustee, including, among others, the right to vote on shares of stock constituting a part or all of the trust property, for periods and purposes as the Trustee in its sole discretion may deem advisable. Any agent shall be eligible to be so employed and to receive and retain reasonable compensation or commissions for services rendered, the same to be in addition to the compensation which such Trustee would otherwise be entitled to receive for services as a Trustee.
- N. To receive property in trust from the Settlers, or from any other person, whether by will or otherwise.
- O. To determine whether and to what extent income of the trust property shall be transferred to the trust property with respect to the amortization, depreciation or depletion of any of the trust property, all without regard to the general rules of law on the subject.

- P. To hold, manage, invest and account for the principal of each trust under Article 4 either as a separate fund or commingled with the principal of any or all of the other trusts as a single fund, as the Trustee in its sole discretion may determine, and if commingled as a single fund, making the division only upon books of account and allocating to each trust its proportionate part of the principal and income of the common fund, and charging against each trust its proportionate part of the common expenses, which expenses may be further apportioned between the income and principal of each trust under subparagraphs (J) and (O).
- Q. To buy, sell and trade in securities of any nature, including short sales, on margin, and for such purposes may maintain and operate margin accounts with brokers, and may pledge any securities held or purchased by them with such brokers as security for loans and advances.
- R. To undertake banking transactions with financial institutions including the ability to open accounts with such institutions, write checks on those accounts, make deposits and withdrawals from those accounts, borrow money and to generally undertake banking transactions with any financial institution.
- S. To allow the surviving spouse to occupy and use until his or her death, any home, residence, vacations home or residence, condominium, cooperative, interval ownership interests or privileges, time share units or privileges, or any interest therein, owned by the Trust and used by either or both Settlers for personal use. The surviving spouse shall not be required to pay rent for such use of the home, and upon his or her direction, may have the Trustee sell such house and reinvest such proceeds as the surviving spouse so directs. The Settlers reserve the right to reside upon any real property transferred to this Trust as the Settlers' permanent residence during Settlers' lifetimes, it being the intent to retain for Settlers the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to the property to comply with §196.041, Florida Statutes, such that the beneficial interest and possessory right constitute in all respects "equitable title to real estate" as used in Section 6, Article VII, of the Florida Constitution.
- T. To elect the mode of payment which appears to be the most advantageous to the trust and beneficiaries, if not previously elected, of any employee benefit plans or retirement plans wherein the Trustee is named as beneficiary.
- U. To continue to participate in any business or other enterprise at the risk of the trust estate and to effect incorporation, dissolution or other change in the form of organization of the business or enterprise.
- V. When dealing with matters involving the actual or threatened contamination of trust property (including interests in sole proprietorships, partnerships or corporations and any assets owned by such business entities) by hazardous substances, or involving compliance with environmental laws. In particular, the Trustee is empowered:

1. To inspect and monitor any such property periodically, as it deems necessary, to determine compliance with any environmental law affecting such property, with all expenses of such inspection and monitoring to be paid from the income or principal of the trust;
2. To respond (or take any other action necessary to prevent, abate or "clean up") as it shall deem necessary, prior to or after the initiation of enforcement action by any governmental body, to any actual or threatened violation of any environmental law affecting any of such property, the cost of which shall be payable from trust assets;
3. To refuse to accept property as a trust asset if it is determined that such property is contaminated by any hazardous substance or that such property is being used or has been used for any substances which could result in liability to the trust or otherwise impair the value of trust assets;
4. To settle or compromise at any time any claim against this trust related to any such matter asserted by any governmental body or private party;
5. To disclaim any power which it determines may cause it to incur personal liability as a result of such matters, whether such power is set forth in this document, incorporated by reference herein, or granted or implied by any statute or rule of law;
6. To decline to serve as Trustee or, having undertaken to serve, resign at any time it believes there is or may be a conflict between it in its fiduciary capacity and in its individual capacity because of potential claims or liabilities which might be asserted against this trust because of the type or condition of trust assets.

The Trustee shall not be personally liable to any beneficiary or other party interested in this trust, or to any third parties, for any claim against the trust for the diminution in value of trust property resulting from such matters, including any reporting of or response to (1) the contamination of trust property by hazardous substances, or (2) violations of environmental laws related to the Trust; provided that the Trustee shall not be excused from liability for its own negligence or wrongful or willful acts;

When used in this document the term "hazardous substance(s)" shall mean any substance defined as hazardous or toxic or otherwise regulated by any federal, state or local law(s), rule(s) or regulation(s) relating to the protection of the environment or human health ["environmental law(s)"].

The Settlers, on behalf of themselves, their heirs and assigns, hereby indemnify and hold harmless the Trustees and Successor Trustees from and against any and all claims, liabilities, penalties and costs, including attorneys' fees, arising from any claim, demand, order or other action related in any way to (1) the actual or threatened contamination of Trust property by any hazardous substance(s), or (2) the generation, use, treatment, storage, disposal, release (actual or threatened) or discharge on or from Trust property or in connection with operations conducted on trust property of any hazardous substances in violation of any environmental law(s).

- W. May delegate to any Co-Trustee or any Independent or Successor Trustee or any other individual or entity, and any of its or their successors, subsidiaries and affiliates, any or all of the delegating Trustee's powers and authorities conferred upon such Trustee by law or by this Trust; provided, that a power or authority which is specifically conferred upon a Trustee (to the exclusion of any other trustee or any other person or entity) shall not be delegated. The delegation of any such power shall be evidence by an instrument in writing signed by the delegating Trustee with two witnesses and acknowledged before a Notary Public and shall be delivered to the Trustee or other person or entity to whom the delegation is made. The delegating Trustee may at any time revoke such delegation in the same manner as the delegation of the power or authority. So long as any such delegation is in effect, any power or authority delegated may be exercised by the Trustee or other person or entity to whom such delegation was made with the same force and effect as if the Trustee delegating such power or authority had itself joined in the exercise of such power or authority in the taking of such action.

- X. The Trustee and any individual or entity with which they are associated or affiliated in any way including, but not limited to, any such individual or entity associated or affiliated through any direct or indirect ownership interest of any sort, each of which is an Authorized Party under this Trust, may deal in their own interest with any trust estate created in this Trust. The Trustee may deal between such trust estate and themselves or any other Authorized Party, either party acting in any capacity including, but not limited to, acting as Trustee, personal representative, employee, or partner, in buying, selling, pledging, leasing and exchanging assets, in furnishing or receiving goods, services or facilities, and in borrowing or lending funds or participating in other extensions of credit when, in their sole discretion, such transaction shall be to the benefit of the trust estate. This authority shall apply regardless of any compensation, gain or profit derived by any Authorized Party acting in any capacity in connection with any such transaction. This authority shall include, but is not limited to, furnishing or receiving investment advice, management services or custodial services, and the sale or purchase of other assets by any Authorized Party in any principal transaction or any agency transaction. Any Authorized Party may furnish services to any trust estate created in this Trust as attorney, investment advisor, accountant, broker, tax specialist or in such other capacity as may be necessary or desirable in the Trustee's sole discretion for the proper management, protection and sale or other disposition of Trust assets, in whole or part, and may receive and retain customary and reasonable compensation for services in any such capacity. In the event any person employed by the Trustee shall also be acting as an officer or director of any corporation in which the Trust may own stock or other securities or as an officer or director of any affiliate of such corporation or may be a candidate for election as such officer or director, such person may act as such officer or director and receive compensation therefor in the same manner as if he were not employed by the Trustee, and shall not be disqualified from voting for his election to such office or for membership on said board of directors for the reason that he is employed by the Trustee, or for the reason that he may be receiving compensation for serving in any such capacity.
- Y. Terminate the Trust or any separate trust hereunder if the aggregate principal value of the Trust or separate trust is $30,000.00 or less; in such event, the Trustee shall distribute and pay over the principal of such trust and the undistributed income therefrom, if any, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries who would be at the time of this distribution entitled to the distribution of principal and undistributed income if the Trust or separate trust hereunder had terminated pursuant to the terms of this Trust.

- Z. To make lifetime gifts, provided, however, the amount of all gifts on behalf of a Settlor to a donee during any one calendar year shall not exceed an amount for each donee equal to the greater of ten thousand dollars, or the amount of the available gift tax annual exclusion, under Section 2503(b) and Section 2513 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended from time to time. Such gifts may be in cash or in kind. If any donee is a minor at the time of such gift, the Trustee may make such gift to such member of such minor's family, as the Trustee may select, as custodian for such minor under a Uniform Transfers To Minors Act, or similar applicable law.

At any time that either of the Settlers or any successor Trustee is acting as a Trustee, the sole signature of a Settlor or of a successor Trustee as a Trustee shall be sufficient to execute proxies or powers of attorney, to vote any securities or other assets, to execute stock powers or other endorsements of securities or any other negotiable instruments registered, issued or drawn in the name of or to the order of the Trustee for the purpose of effecting assignment, transfer or delivery, to sign checks or orders to pay on deposits, accounts or credit balances of the Trustee with any bank, banker, broker or trust company, and to exercise any power granted in this Trust or by law.
