FINAL SUMMARY JUDGMENT IN FORECLOSURE

Order on Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment

This cause coming on to be heard on February 14, 2007 on the motion for Summary Judgment, and the Court being advised in the premises, it is therefore

ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. As to Property 1, the plaintiff has announced the cancellation of the hearing by virtue of the defensive pleadings that have been filed by Attorney Ridlehoover, there fore the motion is moot as to that property.
2. As to Property 2, defendant Moultrie appeared in court and announced that the payoff amount was being sent to the Plaintiff's attorney this date. As no defense was presented, if the defendant Moultrie does not tender the payoff to those attorneys within 15 days, then the plaintiff is entitled to submit an application to the Court after that date, with copy to defendant Moultrie, for entry of an exparte Final Judgment as to property 2.
3. As to Property 9, the defendant Dr. Gabrieli Davis appeared and has filed a motion with the Court on the date of the hearing. Based on the agreement arrived at between Dr. Davis and the Plaintiff's attorney in open Court, and as Dr. Davis is a lien holder but not the owner of the property, he is given 15 days from the date of the hearing to consult an attorney and have the attorney determine if he has legitimate defenses to the lien of the Plaintiff and to file such defenses with the Court, copy to the plaintiff's attorney. If such a defensive pleading is filed within that time, summary judgment as to property 9 is denied and the parties can proceed forward with the litigation. If no such defense is filed by an attorney for Dr. Davis within such 15 days, then the plaintiff is entitled to submit an ex parte entry of final judgment of foreclosure against property 9, with the additional requirement that Dr. Davis will be sent a copy of the judgment so that he can protect his position at the foreclosure sale.

5. Properties 12,14, and 21 have previously been removed from the suit due to settlement or payment.

6. Except as set forth above, the plaintiff is entitled to entry of Summary Judgment of Foreclosure against the remaining properties and defendants, and entry of an appropriate Judgment of Foreclosure is in order, it is, therefore,
