Collection of these monies will absolve the buyer of making these payments. The buyer should notify the seller 30 days before the payments are due for insurance and taxes so they may be paid without penalty. Should the buyer fail to notify the seller of payments due, insurance and taxes, any penalty incurred will be added to the monthly payment due, divided into equal payments until the full amount has been collected. It is also noted that the buyer is required to allow the seller to keep the equivalent of a 'fire policy' on the structure, should the buyer elect not to have full coverage. This minimum insurance shall be treated as stated above and be paid by the buyer in 12 equal payments added to the monthly mortgage payment. Any payment made outside the normal 12-month requirement shall be applied to the principle, there by reducing the total principle due."

It is noted that under many insurance policies written it is now required that the owner, renter, leasers or occupiers of Florida property not allow certain dogs so deemed to be dangerous to persons living in or about this property, nor allow these dogs to be kept within the confines of said property. Therefore it is added to this contract that the for mentioned animals not be kept on or within the property being sold. A list of these animals is not provided in this document, as each insurance company may have a different list of dangerous animals they deem unfit for personal pets. At the time of purchase the insurance company of choice purchased by either the purchaser or mortgage holder will determine which such animals are not allowed. Should the during normal course of business the owner or mortgage holder observe any tenant in violation of this policy, the mortgage holder will notify the owner to whom will notify said tenant of such violation and require tenant 10 days to remove such animals on or about this property. Should owner continue to allow tenant (in case of a rental) to have such animals on or about this property, owner will notify mortgage holder. To which mortgage holder will purchase a higher risk policy from any insurance company that is willing to write this insurance policy, regardless of premium cost. Said new policy cost will than be levied against owner and divided into 12 equal months to pay for increase. Should owner be purchasing said insurance for coverage, he/she will immediately purchase sufficient insurance to cover liability and to protect the mortgage holder against suit from the tenant housing such animals.

This note is to be construed and enforced according to the laws of the State of Florida, and is secured by mortgage on real estate of even date herewith.

If default be made in the payment of any of said sums or interest or in the performance of any agreements contained herein or in the said mortgage, and if such default is not made good within -30 days--, then at the option of the holder of the same, the principal sum then remaining unpaid with accrued interest shall immediately become due and collectible without notice. Time being the essence of this contract, and said principal sum and said accrued interest shall both bear interest at the maximum rate per annum allowed by law, from such time until paid.
