Collection of these monies will absolve the buyer of making these payments. The buyer should notify the seller 30 days before the payments are due for insurance and taxes so they may be paid without penalty. Should the buyer fail to notify the seller of payments due, insurance and taxes, any penalty incurred will be added to the monthly payment due, divided into equal payments until the full amount has been collected. It is also noted that the buyer is required to allow the seller to keep the equivalent of a 'fire policy' on the structure, should the buyer elect not to have full coverage. This minimum insurance shall be treated as stated above and be paid by the buyer in 12 equal payments added to the monthly mortgage payment. Any payment made outside the normal 12-month requirement shall be applied to the principle, there by reducing the total principle due."

It is noted that under many insurance policies written it is now required that the owner, renter, leasers or occupiers of Florida property not allow certain dogs so deemed to be dangerous to persons living in or about this property, nor allow these dogs to be kept within the confines of said property. Therefore it is added to this contract that the for mentioned animals not be kept on or within the property being sold. A list of these animals is not provided in this document, as each insurance company may have a different list of dangerous animals they deem unfit for personal pets. At the time of purchase the insurance company of choice purchased by either the purchaser or mortgage holder will determine which such animals are not allowed. Should the during normal course of business the owner or mortgage holder observe any tenant in violation of this policy, the mortgage holder will notify the owner to whom will notify said tenant of such violation and require tenant 10 days to remove such animals on or about this property. Should owner continue to allow tenant (in case of a rental) to have such animals on or about this property, owner will notify mortgage holder. To which mortgage holder will purchase a higher risk policy from any insurance company that is willing to write this insurance policy, regardless of premium cost. Said new policy cost will than be levied against owner and divided into 12 equal months to pay for increase. Should owner be purchasing said insurance for coverage, he/she will immediately purchase sufficient insurance to cover liability and to protect the mortgage holder against suit from the tenant housing such animals.

This note is to be construed and enforced according to the laws of the State of Florida, and is secured by mortgage on real estate of even date herewith.

If default be made in the payment of any of said sums or interest or in the performance of any agreements contained herein or in the said mortgage, and if such default is not made good within -30 days--, then at the option of the holder of the same, the principal sum then remaining unpaid with accrued interest shall immediately become due and collectible without notice. Time being the essence of this contract, and said principal sum and said accrued interest shall both bear interest at the maximum rate per annum allowed by law, from such time until paid.

PROMISSORY NOTE

For value received, the undersigned_	Sherry T. Rey	enga, promise to pay to the order of, Lou Goldstein and Vikki Gol	dstein, husband ar	nd wife.
The principle sum of: Forty Nine	Thousand Four	Hundred and 00/100

With interest thereon at the rate of 9.75% per annum from this date until maturity, for 15 years or 180 months continuous with said interest being payable as set forth below.

"In equal monthly installments of $ 523.33 commencing on April 1, 2004 and continuing on the 1st day of each month thereafter until the principle sum of $49,400.00 and the interest accrued thereon has been paid. Said installments when so paid shall be applied first to the interest then accrued and the balance thereof to the reduction of the principal hereof. There will be a charge of $25.00 late fee added to the next months mortgage statement if payment is 15 days past the due date.

Payments not made within 45 days of due date will be considered in default and proceeding to recover said property will begin. Mortgage holder will notify buyer by registered mail, return receipt. The full amount of the balance of the mortgage will be immediately due plus any interest. Any and all legal charges to recover said property, plus interest will be added to the amount due. Any legal means to recover said property and past due amounts will be taken, including liens on property owned by buyer, automobiles and/or any other tangible or intangible property to satisfy the full amount due on defaulted property.

For the first 18 months of this contract a 4% prepay penalty will be in effect, based on the full contracted amount of said property, or different if agreed on by all parties herein signed below. After the initial 18 months the pre-pay penalty will be no longer in effect and the buyer may pay off the entire loan as his/her discretion. This loan is non-assumable; payment past 30 days will create a foreclosure. There shall not be under any circumstances a second mortgage taken out on this property without first notifying the first mortgage holder prior to taking out said mortgage. Failure to notify the first mortgage holder may constitute a breach of contract and foreclosure proceeding will begin. Said buyer agrees to vacate the property with all personal effects with 15 days notice of foreclosure by registered mail, return receipt requested.

Buyer is obligated to pay any Federal, State or local taxes on property. Should the buyer fail to do so, such levied taxes shall be included in the monthly payment of principle and interest. Included into the principle and interest payment will be sufficient monies collected to pay homeowners insurance should the buyer elect not to purchase insurance to cover a basic fire polity equal to the value of the property. Seller agrees to escrow said monies and pay in full these taxes and insurance as required. It is also noted that should the homeowners insurance and/or levied taxes increase, that increase divided into 12 equal payments will increase the monthly note due.
