FINAL JUDGMENT

THIS MATTER came on for final hearing in chambers on December 14, 2001 and was continued and completed on March 25, 2002. The Court, having considered the testimony, exhibits and arguments, finds that judgment should be entered as set forth below.

The Defendant sets up as his primary defense the longstanding principle that, in general, contracts for professional services entered into by persons unlicensed in violation of state statutes cannot be enforced. That position, of necessity precludes the Defendant here prevailing on his claims of quantum meruit and unjust enrichment. To hold otherwise would be to permit an unlicensed person to circumvent the requirements of the statute and the principle of law simply by bringing claims on another theory and thereby defeating the public policy that underlies the principle. A review of the contract, admitted as Plaintiff's Exhibit 1 shows that the parties agreed that the Plaintiff would obtain any permit, if necessary. This in turn implies that the parties were aware that the Defendant was not a licensed contractor. The Court therefore concludes that the principle described above with respect to the unenforceability of contracts under such circumstances governs with respect to the Statement of Claim as well.

Accordingly, judgment herein is entered in favor of the Defendant as to the Statement of Claim and in favor of the Counterdefendant as to the Counterclaim.

DONE AND ORDERED this 2nd day of April, 2002, in chambers, at Pensacola, Escambia County, Florida.
