When either one of us is serving as Trustee under the terms of this trust, either one of us may conduct business and act on behalf of our trust without the consent, approval, or co-signature of any other Trustee or beneficiary. Either one of us may: Buy or sell assets for or on behalf of us and/or our trust; make investments for or on behalf of us and/or our trust; conduct any and all banking activities on behalf of us and/or our trust; participate in any and all business activities on behalf of us and/or our trust; manage securities (including but not limited to buying, selling and/or trading securities) on behalf of us and/or our trust; sell, purchase, rent, lease or otherwise deal with real estate

No person or entity paying money to or delivering property to our Trustees shall be required to see to its application. All persons relying on this document regarding our Trustees and their powers over trust property shall be held harmless for any resulting loss or liability from such reliance. A copy of this Certificate of Trust shall be just as valid as the original.

THE GRANTORS herein grant full power and authority by this deed to the Trustees, and any and all Trustees, and all successor Trustees of such Grantee Trust to protect, conserve, sell, lease, pledge, mortgage, borrow against, encumber, convey, transfer or otherwise manage and dispose of all or any portion of the property herein described, or any interest therein, without the consent or approval of any other party and without further proof of such authority.

No person or entity paying money to or delivering property to any Trustee or successor trustee shall be required to see to its application; all persons or entities relying in good faith on this deed and the powers contained herein regarding the Trustees (or successor trustees) of the Grantee Trust and their powers over the property herein conveyed shall be held harmless from any resulting loss or liability from such good faith reliance.

The GRANTORS, individually and on behalf of the Grantors and the heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest of said Grantors, covenant with the said GRANTEES (including said Grantees' Trustees, beneficiaries, heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest) that said GRANTORS are lawfully seized in fee simple of said premises; that said real property (as set forth above) is free from all encumbrances, unless otherwise noted above; that said GRANTORS have a good right to sell and convey the above described real property; that said GRANTORS do and will, on behalf of said GRANTORS heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest of said Grantors warrant and defend the same to the said GRANTEES, (including said Grantees' Trustees, beneficiaries, heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest) now and forever, against the lawful claims of all persons.

The GRANTEE TRUST contains the following language which addresses homestead exemption requirements of Florida law:

Each Trustor reserves the right of the possession, use and occupancy during each Trustor's life, for Homestead Tax Exemption purposes, of any real property used by each Trustor as a principal residence, whether or not title to such realty has been transferred to this Trust. Each Trustor and any member of a Trustor's family to whom a Trustor has granted the use of the residence for personal occupancy after a Trustor's death, shall have the power in all events to instruct the Trustee to sell the residence then currently held and reinvest the proceeds, increased by available Trust assets, in a replacement residence to be used by a Trustor or a Trustor's designated family member or members. The current residence and any replacement shall remain a part of our Trust Estate.

Furthermore, the Trustors reserve the right to reside upon any real property placed in this trust as the Trustors' permanent residence during the Trustors' life, it being the intent of this provision to retain for the Trustors the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property to comply with the common law and all applicable statutes such that said beneficiary interest and possessory right constitute in all respects, "equitable title to real estate". Notwithstanding anything contained in this Trust inconsistent with this provision, the Trustor's interest in any real property in which the Trustors reside pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest in real property and not personally (or personalty) and shall be homestead of the Trustors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Grantors have hereunto set their hands and seals this December 4, 2014, and such deed was executed in the presence of two witnesses, MARCELENE FAROSE and BECKY ANN MILLS, and the Grantors and the witnesses executed this deed in the presence of one another and in the presence of the undersigned Notary Public.
