Re: Surplus funds Tax Deed Account# 07-0597-000 Certificate# 2022/3030

To whom it may concern,

Please be informed that a Corrective Contract for Deed between Theresa A Baker and myself was recorded on June 17, 2010, in OR 6604/34 of the official records in Escambia County. Unfortunately, Ms. Baker did not fulfill her obligations under the terms of the agreement, resulting in the reversion of the deed to my ownership of the property. For your reference, I have enclosed a copy of the corrective contract for deed. Should you have any inquiries regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact my agent, Boyd Berbick, at 1-888-969-9277 with Pluto Asset Recovery, Inc. Hello Mylinda,

Thank you for your response and inquiry. Please be advised that, according to the property owner, Mr. Dan Mattson, under the terms of the Contract for Deed with Ms. Theresa Baker "Purchaser", her responsibilities extended beyond merely making payments. Ms. Baker failed to fulfill other contractual obligations. Specifically, she was not authorized to make any alterations to the property before the contract's conclusion. Ms. Baker violated the agreement by completely removing the parking structure from the property, thereby breaching the Contract for Deed. Consequently, she forfeited her payments, and the deed reverted back to Mr. Dan Mattson as per the agreement. Thank you once again for your response. Should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Good afternoon,

We received the claim on behalf of Dan Mattson. Do you have a statement showing what was paid to Dan under contract and the balance due?

We had notes on the case where Dan called our office prior to auction, on 8/27/2024, and stated that the contract was paid off.

He signed your statement of oath and under penalty of perjury, we are just trying to get clarification.

Thanks,
Mylinda

Hello Mylinda,

Thank you for your inquiry. I have discussed the matter with Dan Mattson, who informed me that the parking structure removed by Theresa Baker from the property would have incurred a replacement cost of $25,000 to $30,000. This action constituted a clear breach of the Contract for Deed, as it involved altering the property during the agreement stage. Consequently, no deed was finalized with Theresa Baker, and the deed reverted to Dan Mattson. I trust this information will assist you in making your decision. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you.

Good morning,

Theresa Baker was the title holder of record at the time of auction. The Property Appraiser did not have Dan listed as the owner.

We may have to get our legal counsel involved, especially when Mr. Mattson isn't claiming an unpaid balance owed on the mortgage.

It may have to be interpleaded.

Subject: Re: 2022 TD 003030 (THERESA BAKER)

Mylinda,

Under this caselaw from the Best Practice (White v. Brousseau - pictured below) it provides that buyer holds equitable title and seller holds bare legal title. So, under 197.582 the "owner" is the one that has unlimited time to file. From my Shrewsbury litigation I've learned the "owner" doesn't always mean titleholder. Shrewsbury was the owner even though he didn't hold legal title. He enjoyed all the benefits of an owner and so in the eyes of the law he was deemed the "owner." But if you look to 197.502(4)(a) the statutory scheme equates "legal titleholder" to "owner." So here, in this part of the statute, it seems the word owner does equal legal title holder.

Now if we apply this here then it means the seller (Mattison) held bare legal title and so he is the owner and thus has unlimited time to file. The buyer (Theresa) thus does not have unlimited time to file and would only have 120 days. Ok so if Theresa doesn't file it seems we should pay Mattison after the 120 days. But, Mr. Berbick says there could be no alterations. I may be overlooking something, but I don't see that in the contract. Where does it say that alterations create a breach of the contract? Maybe we should ask Mr. Berbick?

c. Contracts for deed: This is a contract for real property in which the seller and the buyer repays the loan in installments. The seller retains the legal while permitting the buyer to take possession. When the full purchase pr including any interest, the seller is obligated to convey legal title to the p See FS 498.028 (3), FS 697.01 Torcise v. Subject: RE: 2022 TD 003030 (THERESA BAKER)

Hi Codey, No rush on this---- the 120-day claim period ends 2/10/2025. This is the response I received from the finder company when asking about the balance due to Mr. Mattson on the contract for deed. This is the one where we had a phone conversation with Mr. Mattson prior to the auction and he stated that the contract for deed was paid off. I asked for a statement showing the balance due to him as they did not indicate that on the claim. Theresa Baker was listed as the owner at the time of auction, not Mr. Mattson, so I'm not sure what they mean by the deed reverting to Dan because of an unfulfilled agreement?

Hello Mylinda,

Thank you for your response and inquiry. Please be advised that, according to the property owner, Mr. Dan Mattson, under the terms of the Contract for Deed with Ms. Theresa Baker "Purchaser", her responsibilities extended beyond merely making payments. Ms. Baker failed to fulfill other contractual obligations. Specifically, she was not authorized to make any alterations to the property before the contract's conclusion. Ms. Baker violated the agreement by completely removing the parking structure from the property, thereby breaching the Contract for Deed. Consequently, she forfeited her payments, and the deed reverted back to Mr. Dan Mattson as per the agreement. Thank you once again for your response. Should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Yes, in the best practice it states that with a Contract for Deed the seller has a lien (mortgage), under a contract sales agreement. The buyer receives and holds equitable title, and the seller holds bare legal title only as a security for unpaid purchase price.

That seems like a way to call the bluff if that is what is happening.

I can't access the Best Practices at this point, but do we commonly recognize a Contract For Deed as a lien on the property? Or are you considering the Contract for Deed a lien because its listed on the Property Information Report?

Hi Codey,

We have a Tax Deed claim from a finder company (Pluto Asset Recovery) on behalf of a lienholder (Dan Mattson, Contract for Deed from 2010).

We have notes in our system that Dan Mattson called, prior to the auction.....

Case notes: 8/27/2024 DAN MATTSON 850-453-4376 DID A CONTRACT FOR DEED BUT HE STATED TO ME THAT SHE'S ALREADY PAID IT OFF. EBH

Now he's claiming as a lienholder. He didn't provide a statement of how much is due to him. Do you think we should ask for an Affidavit, with a statement of perjury?

Thoughts?
