(d) The parties may, and indeed are encouraged to, compromise and agree upon other visitation by the husband with said minor child.

8. CHILD SUPPORT: Based on the husband's W-2 from his employer, Southern Wine and Spirits, Inc., for the year 1995, a copy of which is attached as Attachment C, the husband's received gross income was $19,809.00, which divided by 12 months, equals an approximate monthly income of $1,650.75. According to Publication 15, Circular E, the Internal Revenue Services 1996 Tax Guide, the husband, as a single person with one deduction, will pay, as and for Federal Income Tax on a monthly basis, the sum of $178.00 per month and $126.28 in Social Security/Medicaid, which subtracted from the husband's monthly gross income, leaves net available income of $1,346.47. The guideline calculation for the net income, as hereinabove mentioned, is $310.00 per month. Although the wife has the capability of being employed and earning an income sufficient in which to contribute to the support of said minor child, the wife is presently contemplating a move from the Pensacola area to the Tampa area and is without employment. Taking this into consideration, as well as the husband's agreement to maintain the health insurance policy on the minor child at the rate of $225.00 per month, as hereinbelow mentioned, the parties agree to a reduction in the statutory guidelines child support in the amount of $10.00, or to a child support amount of $300.00 per month.

The parties therefore agree that the husband shall pay to the wife, as and for child support for the minor child of the parties the sum of $300.00 per month due and payable to the wife commencing the fifteenth (15th) day of the month after the execution of this Agreement and continuing in the fifteenth (15th) day of each month thereafter until the minor child reaches the age of majority (age 18), dies, marries, becomes self-supporting, or upon further Order of this Court, whichever shall occur first. The husband shall pay this amount directly to the wife unless and until a Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage is entered, whereupon said payments thereafter will be paid to the Clerk of the Court, Domestic Division, 1800 St. Mary's Avenue, Pensacola, Florida 32501 for processing and distribution to the wife, with the husband paying the small administrative charge for processing these monies, as in accordance with Florida Statutes.

During the husband's six week continuous visitation his child support obligation shall be reduced by 50%.

9. HEALTH INSURANCE AND HEALTH EXPENSES: The husband shall hereafter maintain the minor child as a direct beneficiary of a health insurance policy so long as he has an obligation to support said minor child. He will advise and provide to the wife on an annual basis, or sooner if requested, the group and policy number, as well as the minor child's health services identification card.

The parents shall equally divide and each pay one half of the child's reasonable and necessary medical, ocular, dental, orthodontic, and other health related expenses not otherwise covered or paid by any applicable health insurance policy. The parent seeking reimbursement shall promptly submit to the other the bill which shall be paid within fifteen (15) days of receipt.

10. LIFE INSURANCE: The husband shall maintain at his expense life insurance on his life in an amount of not less than $24,000.00 and name the minor child as the sole and irrevocable beneficiary for so long as the husband has an obligation to pay child support and if the child is in college, for as long as the child is a full time student making satisfactory progress toward an undergraduate college degree which ever shall occur last.

11. EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION: The husband shall pay to the wife, as and for her share in equitable distribution of the marital property, the sum of $10,000.00 payable as follows:

(a) $1,000.00 already received.

(b) $9,000.00 upon the wife executing the Quitclaim Deed regarding the marital home as hereinafter agreed.

This sum is in consideration for the distribution of the marital assets of the parties as hereinbelow agreed.

12. DISTRIBUTION OF ASSETS:

(a) Real Property: The parties own, as tenants-by-the-entirety, real property located at 4930 Tangen Street, Pensacola, Florida 32526. The husband shall have the sole use, occupancy, possession, and ownership of said marital home and the wife shall convey any interest, right, or title she may have in said marital home to the husband by Quitclaim Deed within ten (10) days of said Deed being presented to her. Thereafter, the husband shall be solely responsible for any mortgage payments, insurance, taxes, assessments, maintenance, repairs, or any other expenses attributed to said property without recourse to the wife and shall hold the wife harmless from any liability thereon.

(b) Personal Property: The wife shall have, as her sole and own property, the following: couch, love seat, end table, coffee table, Michelle's bed, Michelle's dresser, Michelle's bed table, Michelle's television, two other television, spare bed, old dresser, and all personal items of the wife and minor child.

The husband shall have, as his sole and own property, all other furnishings, appliances, and personal property that remains after the wife's distribution.

Each party will retain possession and ownership of all other property and liabilities that remain in their name only without claim by the other party.

(c) The husband shall have and retain as his own and sole property his pension, profit sharing plan, retirement savings plans, his stacks in his Smith Barney Account, and his CMB investment in a partnership owning apartments in Texas.

13. GENERAL PROVISIONS:

(a) Merger of Agreement: If a judgment of dissolution of marriage is obtained by either party, the original of this Agreement shall be attached to the judgment. The judgment shall state that the Agreement is attached to the judgment and is merged into the judgment for the purpose of becoming an operative part of the judgment. The parties agree that the Court shall be requested to approve the Agreement as fair and equitable and to make specific orders requiring each party to do all the things provided for in this Agreement that at that time have not been fully performed.

(b) Full Disclosure: Each party asserts that he or she has made a full and fair disclosure of all the real and personal property of any nature which belongs or which may belong in any way to

(c) Release of All Claims: Each party, except as otherwise provided for in this Agreement, releases the other from all claims, liabilities, debts, obligations, actions, and causes of action of every kind that have been or will be incurred, whether known or unknown. However, neither party is relieved or discharged from any obligation under this Agreement, or under any document executed pursuant to this Agreement, or under any judgment or order issued incident to the Agreement.

(d) Waiver of Rights to Other Party's Estate: Each party hereby waives any and all rights:

- (i) To inherit any part of the estate of the other at his or her death;
- (ii) To take property from the estate of the other by devise or bequest, except under a will or codicil dated subsequently to the date of this Agreement;
- (iii) To claim any family allowance or probate homestead in the estate of the other;
- (iv) To act as the personal representative under the will of the other, unless so nominated by a will or codicil dated subsequently to the date of this Agreement;

CM 8

(v) To act as the personal representative of the estate of the other on intestacy unless nominated by another party legally entitled to so act.

(e) Holding Other Party Free and Harmless: With respect to past, present, and future liabilities and obligations:

(i) Husband warrants to wife that he has not incurred (except as otherwise specified in this Agreement), and he agrees that he will not incur, any liability or obligation for which she is, or may be liable. If any claim or action is brought attempting to hold her liable for any such liability or obligation, he shall, at his sole expense, defend her against any such claim or action, whether or not well founded, and he shall hold her free and harmless, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(ii) Wife warrants to husband shall she has not incurred (except as otherwise specified in this Agreement), and she agrees that she will not incur, any liability or obligation for which he is, or may be, liable. If any claim or action is brought attempting to hold him liable for any such liability or obligation, she shall, at her sole expense, defend him against any such claim or action, whether or not well founded, and she shall hold him free and harmless, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(iii) All existing charge accounts and credit cards in the names of husband and wife, or in the name of either of them under which the other can make purchases, shall be terminated as of date of execution of this Agreement.

(f) Release of Property: Except as otherwise provided herein, each party does hereby waive, release, and otherwise renounce any and all right to seek alimony, equitable distribution, special equity, or other interest in the property of the other, including trust funds and accounts, and acknowledges that the provisions for the distribution of property contained in this Agreement are intended to be a full, fair, and complete property settlement agreement and division of all marital assets and obligations.

(g) Right to Live Separately and Free From Interference: Each party shall live separate and apart from the other at any place or places that they may respectively select.

(h) Restraining Order: Neither party shall molest, harass, annoy, injure, threaten, or interfere with the other party in any manner whatsoever. Each party may carry on and engage in any employment, profession, business, or other activity as he or she may deem advisable for his or her sole use and benefit. Neither party shall interfere with the use, ownership, enjoyment, or disposition of any property now owned or hereafter acquired by the other.

(i) Legal Representation: Husband acknowledges that he has been represented by counsel, Stephen E. Sutherland, Esquire, of Stephen E. (j) Construction and Headings: The headings contained herein are for convenience only and are not to be utilized in construing the provisions contained herein. Each party has reviewed and revised this Agreement. The rule of construction that ambiguities are to be construed in favor of the non-drafting party shall not be employed in the construction of this Agreement.

(k) Default or Waiver: No waiver of any breach hereof or default hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of any subsequent breach or default of the same or similar nature. No waiver of any rights hereunder shall be deemed to be a waiver of all time of those rights, but shall be considered only as to the specific events surrounding that waiver.

(c) Severability: This Agreement is severable. In the event that any portion or section hereof is unenforceable, this shall not render the remainder of the Agreement unenforceable.

(n) Binding on Successors: This Agreement shall be binding on the parties, their successors, heirs, and assigns.

(o) Modification: No addendum, modification, or waiver of any of the terms of this Agreement shall be effective, unless in writing, signed by both parties and executed with the same formality of this Agreement.

(p) Tax Advice: Both parties acknowledge that they have not received tax advice from their respective counsel concerning the tax consequences of this Agreement. Each party has had an opportunity to consult with a tax specialist or accountant of his or her own choosing.

SHARED PARENTAL RESPONSIBILITY

1. Each parent has been given shared parental responsibility. This means:
  - A. Both parents shall confer so that major decisions affecting the welfare of the child shall be determined jointly. Said decisions include, but are not limited to, education, discipline, religion, medical, and the general upbringing of the child.
  - B. Each parent shall exercise, in the utmost of good faith, his and her best efforts at all times to encourage and foster the maximum relations, love and affection between the minor child of the parties and the other parent. Neither parent shall impede, obstruct, or interfere with the exercise by the other parent of his or her right to companionship with the minor child.
  - C. Each parent shall have access to records and information pertaining to the minor child including, but not limited to, medical, dental and school records. Each parent is encouraged to share this information when it is not readily available to the other parent.
  - D. Neither parent shall make any disparaging remarks about the other parent or quiz the child as to the other parent's private life. It is the child's right to be spared from experiencing and witnessing any animosity or ill-feeling, if any should occur, between the parents and that the minor child should be encouraged to maintain love, respect, and affection for both parents.
  - E. That the relationship between the parents shall be as businesslike as possible: courteous, relatively formal, low-key, and public. Each parent shall be courteous and respectful to the other parent even though, at times, each parent may not feel that the other parent deserves it.
  - F. The non-custodial parent has a duty to communicate directly with the children concerning his/her relationship with them to the extent warranted by their age and maturity. The non-custodial parent cannot expect the primary residential parent to continually act as a "buffer" or "go between". For example should the non-custodial parent be unable to exercise visitation, the non-custodial parent should explain this directly to the child.
  - G. Both parents shall be entitled to participate in and attend special activities in which the minor child is engaged, such as religious activities, school programs, sports events, and other extracurricular activities, and important social events in which the child participates. Each parent should keep the other notified of these events.
  - H. The child shall not be referred to by any other last name than the one listed on their birth certificate. Step-parents shall not be called "Mother" or "Father".
  - I. The primary residential parent has a duty to discuss with the non-custodial parent the advantages and disadvantages of all major decisions regarding the children and to work together in an effort to reach a joint decision. For example, this duty would include an obligation to discuss a decision to remove a child from public school in order to enroll the child in private school. It would not include a decision to have a child's bangs trimmed.
  - J. The primary residential parent has the responsibility to offer to the non-custodial parent the opportunity to care for the children, whenever reasonably possible, on those occasions when the primary residential parent is away due to work or social obligations. That is, the non-custodial parent shall have a right, superior to that of all third parties, to care for the children in the primary residential parent's absence.

ESCAMBIA COUNTY FAMILY LAW DIVISION

CMB

STANDARD VISITATION SCHEDULE

1. GENERAL: The residential parent shall be referred to herein as the "custodial parent" and the other parent shall be referred to as the "non-custodial parent." The word "child" also applies to all children of the parties. This schedule shall apply when the parties live within reasonable commuting distance of each other.
2. WEEKENDS: The non-custodial parent shall be entitled to alternate weekend visitation commencing on the first Friday after the date of this order. Said visitation shall commence Friday at 6:00 p.m. and continue through Sunday at 6:00 p.m. Once the child is picked up, it is the non-custodial parent's responsibility to house and care for the child during this time period unless the custodial parent agrees that the child should be returned early.
3. HOLIDAYS: In odd-numbered years the non-custodial parent shall have Memorial Day and the Thanksgiving holidays and the custodial parent shall have July 4th and Labor Day. In even-numbered years this schedule is reversed.
  - A. THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY: This begins on Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. (before Thanksgiving) and ends Sunday at 6:00 p.m.
  - B. CHRISTMAS VACATION: The first half of the Christmas visitation period shall begin at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out and shall end at 6:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve. The second half of the Christmas visitation period shall begin at 6:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve and end December 31st at 6:00 p.m. The non-custodial parent shall have the child for the entire second half of this vacation period in odd-numbered years. In even-numbered years, the non-custodial parent shall have the child the first half of this Christmas period.
  - C. SPRING BREAK: Spring break shall also be equally divided between the parties with the non-custodial parent having the child the first one-half of that vacation period in odd-numbered years. In even-numbered years the non-custodial parent shall have the child the second-half of that vacation period.
  - D. EASTER: Easter often falls within the spring vacation period. In the event it does not, then the non-custodial parent shall have the child with them on Easter during odd-numbered years and the custodial parent during even-numbered years. If Easter falls within the Spring vacation period, then visitation shall be pursuant to paragraph 3(c) above.
  - E. MOTHER'S DAY AND FATHER'S DAY shall be spent with the appropriate parent.
  - F. HOURS OF VISITATION for Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Mother's Day, Father's Day and Easter (if appropriate) shall be from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
  - G. BIRTHDAYS: In odd-numbered years the child shall celebrate their birthday at the home of the non-custodial parent. In even-numbered years the child shall celebrate his/her birthday at the home of the custodial parent. When appropriate, the parent holding a birthday party for the child may wish to consider inviting the other parent.
  - H. SUMMERS: The summer break shall be equally divided between the parents. The summer vacation begins at 6:00 p.m. on the day that school lets out and ends seven days prior to school recommencing. The non-custodial parent shall have visitation the first half of this period during odd-numbered years and the last one-half during even-numbered years. The custodial parent shall have the same weekend and weekday visitation and communication rights during this summer visitation as the non-custodial parent has during the rest of the year. Remedial school during the summertime shall be accomplished notwithstanding visitation with the non-custodial parent. The parent that has the child shall cause the child to attend school.
  - I. HOLIDAYS: A holiday that falls on a weekend shall be spent with the parent who is entitled to have the child for that holiday. The remainder of the weekend shall be spent with the parent who would normally have the child during the weekend.

CMB

- J. CANCELLATION BY NON-CUSTODIAL PARENT: Forty-eight hours notice shall be given by the non-custodial parent to the custodial parent if visitation will not be exercised for that holiday or weekend. Otherwise, the non-custodial parent is expected to pick up their child at the appointed time. Any visitation canceled by the non-custodial parent shall be forfeited unless the non-visitiation is caused by illness, extended work hours, or a physical impossibility to pick up the child.
- 4. ITINERARY: An itinerary shall be provided to the non-custodial parent in the event that the custodial parent intends to spend any substantial portion of time at some place other than his/her home. Conversely, the non-custodial parent shall provide a like schedule if that parent is going to take the child out of town for any extended period of time.
- 5. SCHEDULED EVENTS: In the event that the child has a softball game, ballet, scout meeting, or other extracurricular activity, then the non-custodial parent is required to assure the child's attendance, provided that the parents have agreed that the child will participate in these activities. The child's wishes should be taken into account before any scheduled event is missed.
- 6. WEEKDAY VISITATION: The non-custodial parent shall have visitation each Wednesday from the time the child gets out of school until one hour before the child's customary bedtime.
- 7. OTHER HOLIDAYS: The Court recognizes that this schedule (and the typical school schedule) revolves around Christian holidays. If the parties are of another faith or nationality, then these holidays shall be shared as are the Christian holidays.
- 8. TRANSPORTATION: The child shall be transported to and from visitation by the non-custodial parent, that parent's spouse or by a third party agreed to by both parents.
- 9. WAITING: The child and the custodial parent shall have no duty to await the arrival of the non-custodial spouse for more than thirty minutes. If the child is not picked up by the non-custodial parent within that time, visitation shall be forfeited for that visitation period, unless the non-custodial parent's lateness is excused by illness, extended work hours or a physical impossibility to arrive on time.
- 10. CANCELLATIONS BY CUSTODIAL PARENT: In the event that the child is ill and unable to safely leave the home, the custodial parent shall give the non-custodial parent twenty-four hour notice, if possible, in order that appropriate alternate plans can be made. The non-custodial parent shall have a right to a "make-up" period of visitation. If medication has been prescribed for the child, then that medicine shall accompany the child and shall be given as prescribed. The doctor's name and phone number shall be shared. The other parent shall be notified as soon as practical in the event of illness or accident happening to a child while in the care of one parent.
- 11. COMMUNICATIONS: The child shall be entitled to telephonic communication with the custodial parent once each day during any period of visitation. Said communication may be initiated either by the child or the custodial parent and shall be exercised at such times as will be least disruptive to the child's normal routine. Conversely, the non-custodial parent shall be entitled to the same telephonic communication with the child when he/she is not exercising visitation. Each parent shall keep the other advised of the child's current address and telephone number.
- 12. MAKE-UP VISITATION: If visitation missed on an "alternate weekend" should be made up, then it shall take place on the weekend after the visitation was missed. The regular visitation shall then recommence the following weekend. Summer, Spring Break and Christmas make-up days shall be added to the visitation schedule the following summer, Spring Break or Christmas.
- 13. ADEQUATE AND CLEAN CLOTHING FOR THE VISITATION: These shall be supplied by the custodial parent and all of these clothes shall be returned by the non-custodial parent to the custodial parent in the same condition.

14. PRE-SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN (BEFORE AGE SIX): Parents are especially encouraged to change the above schedule for pre-schoolers. Pre-schoolers are not affected by summer vacation, Christmas holidays, Thanksgiving holidays and Spring Break. Rather than exercise six or seven weeks in the summer, parents may wish to spread this time over the other months of the year. Pre-schoolers should not spend many consecutive nights away from their usual home. However, the same amount of visitation over a year's period should be given to the non-custodial parent.

It is better for the young child that the non-custodial parent exercise his/her visitation while the child is scheduled for day care and to have more frequent contact during the week, rather than have the child for extended overnight periods.

Rather than the non-custodial parent spending alternate Friday and Saturday nights with the child, he/she might see the child either every Saturday or every Sunday and perhaps alternate these days each week. As the child gets closer to his/her sixth birthday or to the start of kindergarten, then overnight visitation should be expanded so that the visitation schedule for a child over age six will not be a drastic change.

In the event that the parents cannot agree to these changes for the benefit of their child then the parents shall follow the same schedule as for non-preschool (or older) children.

15. RELOCATION OF CUSTODIAL PARENT: In the event the custodial parent intends to relocate outside the Pensacola area, he/she shall provide the non-custodial parent with ninety days' notice prior to any relocation.

16. ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS: In the event a contempt or modification hearing is held and one parent has acted in bad faith, then that parent may be responsible for the other parent's attorney's fees and court costs.

17. CHILD SUPPORT: Non-payment or late-payment of child support is not an acceptable reason to deviate from this schedule. Conversely, denial of visitation will not justify non-payment or late payment of child support.

18. GRANDPARENTS: Grandparents are entitled to maintain contact with their grandchildren. Please share them with your parents and your former in-laws.

19. FLEXIBILITY: Each parent is encouraged to mutually agree to change this schedule to suit the needs of the child first, and themselves secondly. The parties may, by mutual agreement, change the terms of this schedule.
