(2) The seller agrees, at his own cost and expense, to furnish the buyer with a title insurance commitment issued by a title insurance company of seller's choice acceptable to the buyer (it being understood that Lawyer's Title Insurance Corporation, Chelsea Title & Guaranty Company, Attorneys' Title Insurance Fund, Title & Trust Company of Florida and Chicago Title Insurance Company, or any one of them shall be acceptable to the buyer) within thirty (30) days after the full execution hereof by both parties, agreeing to issue to the buyer upon the recording of this contract a title insurance policy in the amount of the purchase price insuring the title of the buyer as the contract purchaser to said real property, excepting only mechanic's and materialmen's liens, restrictions and easements of record, taxes and assessments for the current year, the existing mortgage on the property as hereafter mentioned, any state of facts which an accurate survey would show, and subject to such standard conditions and exceptions as usually are printed in owner's policies issued by that title insurer, and the buyer is to have fifteen (15) days from date of delivery of said title commitment within which to have the title to said property approved. If record title to said property, as shown by said commitment, is not good and insurable in the opinion of the attorneys for the buyer, subject to the restrictions and easements of record and the mortgage lien as hereinafter described, then upon surrender of the said title commitment to the seller this contract shall stand rescinded or, at the option of the buyer, he may accept the title and require performance of this contract; provided if on or before the expiration of said fifteen (15) days buyer fails to furnish seller with a written opinion of the attorney for buyer disapproving the title based on said commitment and specifically pointing out the grounds of disapproval, the buyer shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted the title and be bound to perform. In the event the buyer fails and refuses to complete the purchase hereunder, the seller at his option may require specific performance or retain any sums paid to seller as liquidated damages and treat this contract at an end. In the event of termination hereof, declaration of termination for failure of buyer to comply herewith, executed and recorded by the seller shall as to all third parties be deemed conclusive evidence of the valid termination of the rights of buyer.

(3) Upon the payment in full of the balance due under this contract, and the due and faithful performance by the buyer of the agreements and covenants herein agreed to be done or performed, the seller shall promptly execute and deliver to the buyer a good and sufficient warranty deed of conveyance to the said property, except however, as to taxes for 1985 and subsequent years and as to all restrictions and easements of record in Escambia County, Florida, but with no warranty whatsoever as to liens or encumbrances against said property created or suffered by the buyer, his successors and assigns, all at the cost and expense of the buyer, including documentary stamps to be affixed to said deed, (for which costs the seller will reimburse the buyer one-half thereof) and subject to any mortgage liens which the buyer may hereafter agree to assume.

(4) The above described property is presently encumbered by the mortgage as hereinafter described, to-wit:

Mortgage from Ernest Joseph Jones and Deborah L. Jones, as husband and wife, to Colonial Mortgage Company, in the original principal sum of $26,500.00, dated June 24, 1977, recorded in Official Record Book 1116 at page 857 of the public records of Escambia County, Florida, the unpaid principal balance on which is approximately the sum of $24,000.00;

the payments on which the seller hereby agrees to pay regularly and promptly as they come due; provided, however, in the event the seller does not make the said payments on the aforesaid mortgage to said mortgagee promptly when due, the buyer may at his option make said payments and receive credit therefor against the aforesaid monthly installments due to the seller on this contract.

(5) Anything herein and in that certain note described in paragraph (1) above to the contrary notwithstanding, the buyer and the seller covenant and agree that buyer, at buyer's option may pay in full to the seller, his heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns, at any time, the total unpaid principal balance then due on said note (secured by this contract) together with accrued interest to date of payment in certified funds, less and except the then unpaid principal and accrued interest balance due at that time, if any, on the mortgage and the indebtedness represented thereby due to Colonial Mortgage Company described in paragraph (4) above and that buyer will assume and agree to pay and abide by in all respects the said mortgage and indebtedness secured thereby as described in paragraph (4) above; whereupon the seller will promptly execute and deliver to the buyer a good and sufficient deed of conveyance as set forth in paragraph (3) above provided all other covenants and agreements hereunder have been faithfully performed. If the said difference between the balance due on this contract and that due on said mortgage described above is not paid prior thereto, this contract and the debt it secures shall mature on May 8, 2015.

(6) The buyer covenants and agrees that he will join with the seller, his heirs, successors and assigns, in executing any notes, mortgages, affidavits, additional advance agreements, contracts or other documents required by any lender in connection with any financing or refinancing of the said property by a mortgage on the above described property, provided however, that the amount of said notes, mortgages, agreements, etc. which the buyer shall be required to execute shall at no time exceed, nor be amortized at a slower rate than, the unpaid balance due on this contract for principal and accrued interest.

(7) The buyer further covenants and agrees to keep perfect and unimpaired the security property hereinabove described and to permit, commit or suffer no waste, impairment or deterioration of said property or any part thereof, and also covenants and agrees to pay all taxes for 1985 and subsequent years, all assessments, levies, obligations and encumbrances of every kind to keep the improvements now or hereafter on said property described insured against loss by fire, windstorm and other hazards in the names of the parties as their interest may appear in the sum of not less than Twenty Nine Thousand and No/100 Dollars

($29,000.00), or maximum insurable value, whichever is less, at the cost and expense of the buyer. In the event any of said sums be not promptly paid or any of said covenants be not promptly performed, the seller shall have the option to pay the same without waiving or affecting his right to declare a forfeiture or to foreclose this contract, or without waiving any other right hereunder, and all sums so paid for taxes, assessments, levies, obligations, encumbrances, hazard insurance, etc. shall become a part of the indebtedness secured hereby and shall bear interest at the rate herein provided. Seller and buyer covenant and agree that the taxes and insurance premiums are currently paid out of the escrow account maintained by seller with Colonial Mortgage Company on the mortgage described in paragraph (4) above. Buyer shall reimburse seller for such escrow costs either on a monthly basis or annually (at buyer's option) immediately upon being notified by seller of the disbursements from the escrow account to pay the taxes and insurance premiums. Failure to so reimburse the seller within fifteen (15) days after such notification shall constitute a default under this contract for which seller may at his option foreclose or collect as otherwise provided herein. If the buyer desires to increase the hazard insurance coverage of the existing policy to comply with the foregoing requirements or if he desires to furnish a new hazard insurance or homeowners policy insuring both parties as their interest may appear and showing Colonial Mortgage Company as the mortgagee (provided such policy is acceptable to the mortgagee) he may do so by paying the first year's premium in full and then paying monthly to the seller any increase in the cost of such policy which seller may be required to pay into the escrow account on a monthly basis. The intent hereof is for buyer to be totally responsible and liable for all taxes and all hazard insurance premiums and costs subsequent to the date of the contract-sales agreement; February 25, 1985.

(8) The buyer further covenants and agrees that he will not grant, convey or release the above-described property or any interest therein by deed, mortgage, lien or in any manner whatsoever without obtaining the prior written consent of the seller. A breach of this covenant shall give the seller the right to terminate this agreement immediately at his option.

(9) Buyer covenants and agrees to make each installment payment as hereinabove provided promptly when such payments are due, and upon his failure to make any such payment as provided for by this contract, or upon his failure to perform any of the covenants or agreements herein contained, the buyer shall forfeit all rights whatsoever under this contract and any and all payments made on account of said property shall be considered and treated as a reasonable rental of same up until the date of default or non-payment and the buyer shall become, as to the property hereinabove described, the tenant at will of seller and will vacate and deliver up possession thereof to seller upon three (3) days notice in writing; or the seller may treat this agreement as a lien to secure the balance of the unpaid purchase price and the faithful performance of all of the covenants and agreements herein set forth and at his option, upon any such breach, default or non-payment of any installment, declare the entire unpaid balance, including accrued interest and any advances for taxes and insurance, if any, immediately due and payable, time being of the essence, and foreclose this instrument as a mortgage on the above-described property in accordance with the Statutes of Florida providing for such mortgage foreclosures; and, all costs and expenses, including a reasonable attorney's fee incurred in collecting said unpaid balance or in foreclosing said lien, shall be a part of the lien upon said property and of the sum adjudged upon foreclosure.

(10) Buyer covenants that in the event seller places this contract in the hands of an attorney for collection or foreclosure, he will pay a reasonable attorney's fee to the seller's attorney and also all costs of collection and suit, which costs and fees shall be included in any such sum adjudged on foreclosure.
