All persons relying on this document regarding the Trustee(s) and their powers over trust property shall be held harmless for any resulting loss or liability from such reliance.

THE GRANTORS herein grant full power and authority by this deed to the Trustees, and any and all Trustees, and all successor Trustees of such Grantee Trust to protect, conserve, sell, lease, pledge, mortgage, borrow against, encumber, convey, transfer or otherwise manage and dispose of all or any portion of the property herein described, or any interest therein, without the consent or approval of any other party and without further proof of such authority.

BK: 6508 PG: 1488

No person or entity paying money to or delivering property to any Trustee or successor trustee shall be required to see to its application; all persons or entities relying in good faith on this deed and the powers contained herein regarding the Trustees (or successor trustees) of the Grantee Trust and their powers over the property herein conveyed shall be held harmless from any resulting loss or liability from such good faith reliance.

The GRANTORS, individually and on behalf of the Grantors and the heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest of said Grantors, covenant with the said GRANTEES (including said Grantees' Trustees, beneficiaries, heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest) that said GRANTORS are lawfully seized in fee simple of said premises; that said real property (as set forth above) is free from all encumbrances, unless otherwise noted above; that said GRANTORS have a good right to sell and convey the above described real property; that said GRANTORS do and will, on behalf of said GRANTORS heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest of said Grantors warrant and defend the same to the said GRANTEES, (including said Grantees' Trustees, beneficiaries, heirs, executors, personal representatives, assigns, legatees, and successors in interest) now and forever, against the lawful claims of all persons.

The GRANTEE TRUST contains the following language which addresses homestead exemption requirements of FLORIDA law:

Trustor reserves the right of the possession, use and occupancy during Trustor's life, for Homestead Tax Exemption purposes, of any real property used by Trustor as a principal residence, whether or not title to such realty has been transferred to this Trust. Each Trustor and any member of a Trustor's family to whom a Trustor has granted the use of the residence for personal occupancy after a Trustor's death, shall have the power in all events to instruct the Trustee to sell the residence then currently held and reinvest the proceeds, increased by available Trust assets, in a replacement residence to be used by a Trustor or a Trustor's designated family member or members. The current residence and any replacement shall remain a part of my Trust Estate.

Furthermore, the Trustor reserves the right to reside upon any real property placed in this trust as the Trustor's permanent residence during the Trustor's life, it being the intent of this provision to retain for the Trustor the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property to comply with the common law and all applicable statutes such that said beneficiary interest and possessory right constitute in all respects, "equitable title to real estate."

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Trust inconsistent with this provision, the Trustor's interest in any real property in which the Trustor resides pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest in real property and not personally (or personalty) and shall be the homestead of the Trustor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said Grantors have hereunto set their hands and seals this June 17, 2009, and such deed was executed in the presence of two witness, C. Gary Hicks and Michael L. Cumpton, and the Grantors and the witnesses executed this deed in the presence of one another and in the presence of the undersigned Notary Public.
