Each Trustor and any member of a Trustor's family to whom a Trustor has granted the use of the residence for personal occupancy after a Trustor's death, shall have the power in all events to instruct the Trustee to sell the residence then currently held and reinvest the proceeds, increased by available Trust assets, in a replacement residence to be used by a Trustor or a Trustor's designated family member or members. The current residence and any replacement shall remain a part of my Trust Estate.

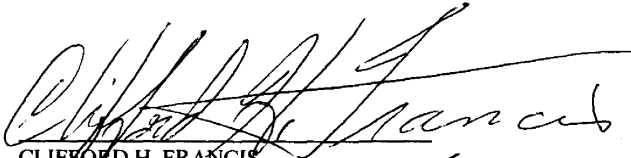

Furthermore, the Trustor reserves the right to reside upon any real property placed in this trust as the Trustor's permanent residence during the Trustor's life, it being the intent of this provision to retain for the Trustor the requisite beneficial interest and possessory right in and to such real property to comply with the common law and all applicable statutes such that said beneficiary interest and possessory right constitute in all respects, "equitable title to real estate."

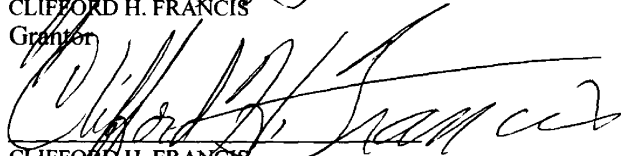

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Trust inconsistent with this provision, the Trustor's interest in any real property in which the Trustor resides pursuant to the provisions of this trust shall be deemed to be an interest in real property and not personally (or personalty) and shall be the homestead of the Trustor.
