FINAL JUDGMENT

This case came before the court on September 19, 2023. Both parties were present. The Court heard testimony and evidence.

This case involves a rental property dispute. The Plaintiff in this case was a tenant of the Defendant's. Plaintiff has sued alleging that the Defendant resorted to self-help eviction practices. Defendant counter claims for damage to a vent cover and floor.

The testimony established that the Defendant did interfere with both electricity and water services and moved her trailer without her permission. Florida law is clear that each violation is a distinct offense. Each violation results in the Defendant being responsible for three months' rent for each offense. There was conflicting testimony regarding the rent amount. Amounts of $600, $550, and $450 were all offered as the monthly rent. The Court finds the rate to be $550 per month. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to recover $1,650 for interfering with electricity, $1650 for interfering with water, and $1,650 for moving the trailer. This is a total of $4,950.

The Defendant's counter claim asserts damage to a floor and a vent cover. The floor does appear to need repair. Defendant testified that the total costs of repair would be $3,547.50 though no evidence was introduced. In any event, there was testimony that the roof was leaking through the vent cover. The estimate provided by Defendant's testimony is insufficient to award that entire amount. However, the Defendant's counterclaim is also granted and shall recover from the Plaintiff $2,500. Therefore, it is, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Plaintiff shall recover from the Defendant $4,950. This amount will be offset by the Defendant's counter claim in the amount of $2,500. Resulting in the Plaintiff being entitled to $2,450.

For all of which let execution issue.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers, Pensacola, Escambia County, Florida on November 28, 2023.
